COLLOQUY

ESR OPERATOR: All rise.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MULTIPLE SPEAKERS: Good morning, Your Honor.

THE COURT: This is United States versus Anthony Robinson sentencing.

Do you want to swear the defendant, please.

ESR OPERATOR: Would you raise your right hand.

(DEFENDANT, SWORN.)

THE COURT: Counsel, identify yourselves for the record.

MS. LINEHAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Jeanine Linehan for the United States.

MS. MacEOIN: Good morning, Your Honor. Nancy MacEoin on behalf of Mr. Robinson.

MS. SCOTT: Good morning, Your Honor. Kia Scott from the Federal Defender's office on behalf of Mr. Robinson as well.

THE COURT: Okay. Please be seated.

I signed this order allowing your

COLLOQUY

1 sentencing memo to be under seal.

2 INDISCERNIBLE SPEAKER: Thank you, Your
3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Is there any reason why I
5 shouldn't sentence Mr. Robinson today?

6 INDISCERNIBLE SPEAKER: No, Your Honor.

7 INDISCERNIBLE SPEAKER: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Robinson, a written
9 presentence report was prepared by the probation
10 office to assist me in sentencing you. Did you
11 receive a copy of that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Did you read it?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with your 16 lawyer?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Did she answer all your 19 questions?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Um-hmm.

21 MS. MacEOIN: You have to answer --

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Are there any matters in 24 dispute, Counsel?

25 MS. MacEOIN: Your Honor, there's just

1 one paragraph -- I'm sorry. Paragraph number 28 of
2 the PSR is the only thing that the defense disputes,
3 and that's the consideration of a five-point
4 enhancement for the acquitted conduct under Count 4,
5 which was of the second 924(c) -- this is outlined in 6 the defendant's sentencing memorandum on page 8 under 7 section 3.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to the paragraph.
9 What is it --

10 MS. MacEOIN: Sure.

11 THE COURT: -- 38?

12 MS. MacEOIN: Correct -- 28, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: 28. Okay. Let's talk about
14 it.

15 MS. MacEOIN: Certainly.

16 Your Honor, the defense understands that 17 this does not affect Mr. Robinson's overall
18 sentencing guidelines because of the application of 19 4B1.1 or the career offender guidelines.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MS. MacEOIN: So we are not bringing it
22 to the court's attention to contest the overall
23 recommended guideline range; however, I -- we bring 24 it to the court's attention because it does affect 25 the underlying pre -- I'm sorry -- pre-career

ARGUMENT - MS. LINEHAN

1 offender guidelines in comparison to the career
2 offender guidelines.

3 So, for example, if the offense level
4 were lowered to 27, which is what we contest the 5 ultimate offense level is, taking out those five
6 points, with, again, the pre-career offender
7 category -- I'm sorry -- criminal history category,
8 it would be five, and that would mean that his 9 guidelines would start at 120 to 150 months, of 10 course, in addition to the 924(c), the -- the Count 2
11 of the indictment.

12 THE COURT: But you still end up 360 to
13 life.

14 MS. MacEOIN: We do, but the defense
15 brings this up solely as a contrast between what he 16 would have received in comparison to the 360 to life
17 versus the guidelines as set out before -- in the 18 presentence report. It's just for Your Honor to 19 consider in regarding a variance. So that's all.
20 But we do contest that the five points should be 21 applied at all because it is acquitted conduct.

22 MS. LINEHAN: And Your Honor heard the 23 testimony of the victim. The victim said that the 24 defendant pointed a gun at him from the defendant's
25 waist. It wasn't shown on the videotape. The

RULING OF THE COURT / FINDINGS OF THE COURT

1 government understands and acknowledges that the 2 defendant was acquitted of that gun count, but we
3 would defer to Your Honor, because as Your Honor
4 stated, the guidelines are the same.

5 THE COURT: All right. I'll -- I'll
6 grant that motion.

7 MS. MacEOIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Any outstanding motions?

9 MS. MacEOIN: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I'll adopt the facts as
11 presented in the presentence report as I've amended
12 it.

13 I recognize that although the sentencing
14 guidelines are no longer mandatory, I must consider 15 them in connection with all the factors set forth in 16 18 U.S.C. 3553(a).

17 Accordingly, I must determine what the 18 applicable or arguably applicable guideline range is 19 and consider the applicable policy statements.

20 I'm just getting over a cold. It may 21 not sound like I'm getting over it, but I'm telling
22 you, I'm getting over it.

23 Having done so, I must determine the 24 facts appropriate for imposing a reasonable sentence
25 that is either a guideline sentence or a

FINDINGS OF THE COURT

1 non-guideline sentence.

2 In this case, the offense level is 32,
3 criminal history category VI. Is that right?

4 MS. MacEOIN: Actually, Your Honor, with 5 my previous objection, it would be 27 is the offense.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. But when you get 7 the --

8 MS. MacEOIN: Oh, I'm sorry. With the 9 application of 4B1.1.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MS. MacEOIN: That's correct, Your
12 Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: So you're talking about a 32
14 with level VI.

15 MS. MacEOIN: Correct.

16 THE COURT: And that has a guideline
17 range of 360 months to life; is that right?

18 MS. MacEOIN: That's correct, Your
19 Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Robinson, on May 9,
21 2013, the U.S. Attorney for the United States
22 District Court for the Eastern District of 23 Pennsylvania filed an indictment charging you with 24 the following offenses: Robbery which interferes
25 with interstate commerce, using and carrying a

1 firearm during and in relation to a crime of 2 violence.

3 On September 16, 2014, you were found
4 guilty by a jury to Counts 1, 2 and 3, not guilty as 5 to Count 4 of the indictment.

6 Before I ask you if there's anything
7 you'd like to say on your behalf, I'm going to ask
8 your attorney and the Assistant U.S. Attorney whether 9 they would like to make any remarks.

10 So defense counsel?

11 MS. MacEOIN: Thank you, Your Honor.
12 May I approach?

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MS. MacEOIN: As the court has already
15 pointed out, these are not mandatory guidelines,
16 obviously, and under Booker and the progeny, the 17 defense moves for a downward variance in this case
18 considering all of the statutory factors outlined in 19 3553(a) and outlined in detail in our sentencing
20 memo.

21 So I'm not going to repeat every single
22 point we make, but I think that there's two key
23 factors that the court should consider when imposing
24 a sentence on Mr. Robinson.

25 One is his age. Right now, before the

1 court, Mr. Robinson is 41 years old. He recognizes
2 fully that he is -- given the guideline sentence,
3 he's unlikely to be released from prison before he's 4 in his 60s.

5 THE COURT: Is that so old?

6 MS. MacEOIN: It's not old, Your Honor,
7 but that -- statistically, the empirical evidence
8 shows that the recidivism rate does drop when a
9 person is in their -- over -- their 40s, actually.

10 THE COURT: When they're my age?

11 MS. MacEOIN: I'm not worried about Your
12 Honor recidivising.

13 The other thing that I think is very 14 important for the court to consider is his recent 15 diagnosis, and that's outlined in Dr. Barber's report
16 that was submitted as Exhibit A to our original 17 sentencing memo and then, of course, with the 18 supplement that was submitted this morning.

19 This recent diagnosis is something that 20 Mr. Robinson has never fully had the opportunity to 21 delve into. He's always been told before he kind of 22 has some sort of generic depression, some sort of 23 PTSD, and with a more comprehensive evaluation, he's 24 learned that, you know, there's something more
25 specific to this, and there is specific treatments to 1 that.

2 Considering his past, considering his --
3 including his criminal history, he at this point has 4 a great potential to rehabilitate. He is a different
5 man now at 41 than he was when he was 17 and 6 incarcerated with adults.

7 He's a different person now at 41 in 8 that he's reconnected with his family, both his
9 girlfriend, Tisha Stevens [ph], and his daughter,
10 Christina Stevens [ph].

11 And I apologize. I don't see -- I know
12 that Tisha Stevens [ph] was unable to make it today
13 because of a work obligation. She does apologize to 14 the court. Christina Stevens, I think, is on her
15 way. So she may come in during this hearing.

16 And also present in the court is Beverly 17 Robinson, the defendant's mother, and she'll also 18 address the court.

19 So I think that what we have to look at 20 here is the guidelines of 360 to life and, again,
21 what is necessary but not beyond necessary to give 22 Mr. -- to -- to meet all those statutory factors of 23 3553(a).

24 The defense submits that 30 years is
25 beyond what is necessary and, therefore, moves for a

1 downward variance at this age and with the proper 2 diagnosis as well as --

3 THE COURT: He's what? 41?

4 MS. MacEOIN: He's 41, Your Honor.

5 -- as well as his recognition that he
6 needs lifelong treatment.

7 Going away for a certain period of time
8 in the past has never done him any good. Partly,
9 he -- he was a different person. He was young.
10 Being 17 years old, being incarcerated with adults,
11 being incarcerated for most of your 20s, he -- he 12 wasn't able to fully develop, the defense submits,
13 and that's also outlined in Dr. Barber's report.
14 Also, considering his past, he never got the proper
15 treatment for the type of trauma that he's been 16 through.

17 So we submit to Your Honor that at this 18 age -- he's at -- kind of at this golden point in his 19 life.

20 THE COURT: He wasn't young when he
21 committed this crime.

22 MS. MacEOIN: No, but I'm going back to
23 when he -- he actually -- I mean, if you look at it,
24 he's been institutionalized off and on since he was 25 about 10 years old.

1 And -- and he wasn't necessarily young
2 when he committed the instant crime. That's 3 absolutely correct.

4 What we submit, Your Honor, is that by 5 the time he is released from Your Honor's sentence of 6 imprisonment in this case, he will be much older. He 7 will have received the type of treatment he needs.

8 And he is in the process right now in
9 his life of the self-reflection, of the redemption
10 that he needs to do that he should have done at a
11 younger point in his life but wasn't either afforded
12 the opportunities or there for -- in himself at that 13 point.

14 So it's both his personal growth and
15 history, his redemption, as well as his age that I'd 16 like the court to consider, as well as all the 17 factors outlined in our -- in our sentencing memo and 18 motion for downward variance, and very carefully,
19 what's outlined in Dr. Barber's report.

20 THE COURT: I read Dr. Barber's report
21 and the supplement.

22 MS. MacEOIN: Do you have any questions,
23 Your Honor, about the report?

24 THE COURT: No.

25 MS. MacEOIN: Thank you.

STATEMENT OF MS. ROBINSON

1 Now, would you like to hear from
2 Ms. Robinson at this point, or would you like --

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 MS. MacEOIN: Great. Ms. Robinson, if
5 you could come up.

6 MS. ROBINSON: Good morning, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Good morning.

8 MS. ROBINSON: Thank you for your time,
9 and I just --

10 ESR OPERATOR: Please state your name
11 for the record.

12 MS. ROBINSON: Beverly Robinson. This
13 is not about -- [indiscernible]. I'm sorry. I don't 14 mean to get emotional.

15 THE COURT: Just take your time. Nobody
16 is going anywhere.

17 MS. ROBINSON: I'm not here to -- to
18 lessen what my son has been doing, but I'm just here
19 to try to give it all back right on down.

20 He is mentally ill, and he always have 21 been, and I didn't want to face it because he's my 22 first-born son. And even when he was a little boy in 23 kindergarten, there was trouble.

24 And his father's mentally ill. His
25 father did the same things when he was a teenager.

1 And I had Tony when I was 17, so, you know, I didn't
2 make a good choice of who his father was, and -- I've 3 always known he was mentally ill.

4 And when he was 10 years old, I called
5 around to get help for him because I noticed that his 6 behavior wasn't like the other kids. And then I had 7 to put my child away at 10 years old so that he could
8 get the help that he need.

9 He's been gone all his life anyway.
10 He's always been in prison, and I just stand before
11 you, Your Honor, to say please have mercy and 12 consider his mental illness when sentencing him.

13 I thank you very much for hearing me
14 out.

15 THE COURT: Thank you for coming.

16 MS. ROBINSON: Thank you.

17 MS. MacEOIN: Your Honor, again, his
18 daughter, Christina Stevens [ph], we expect her. So 19 if she does come before the proceeding is closed, if 20 we can just have her speak to the court.

21 THE COURT: That's no problem.

22 MS. MacEOIN: Again, I just want to
23 reiterate, after even listening to Ms. Robinson
24 speak, that this is kind of a golden opportunity
25 for -- for Anthony. You know, he's at a critical

1 point in his life, a critical point in his emotional
2 and personal development, and he's going to be in
3 prison for a while. And he knows that, and he's 4 going to use it to the best of his ability to 5 rehabilitate himself and be there for his grandson
6 the way he could not be there for his own daughter.

7 Thank you.

8 THE COURT: I'll hear from the 9 government.

10 MS. LINEHAN: Your Honor, I don't -- I
11 don't believe that the doctor's psychological
12 evaluation -- evaluation and assessment and her sort
13 of putting forth to the court factors that she
14 thought Your Honor should consider are an accurate
15 representation of the defendant that sits before you.

16 Your Honor knows who this defendant is 17 because Your Honor has spent more time with him than 18 the doctor. Your Honor has seen the defendant's
19 behavior in pretrial proceedings and during the 20 trial.

21 Your Honor understands what he put forth
22 as his defense. Your Honor knows that he 23 offered that he was not the man in both of those 24 videos that held a gun to these young people who were 25 working to make a dollar.

1 I don't believe that the victims would
2 tell you that they thought he was capable of 3 rehabilitation since he terrorized both of them.

4 And that -- and the -- and the biggest
5 concern the government has, Your Honor -- and we 6 pointed this out in our sentencing memorandum -- is 7 that the doctor concludes that the defendant is 8 sincerely remorseful and acknowledges what he's done;
9 however, nowhere in the three hours did the defendant
10 mention the victims.

11 He mentioned his girlfriend, and he
12 mentioned his daughter and said that he felt sorry
13 for putting them through this. He didn't mention
14 either of the people that he held a gun to during 15 these violent robberies.

16 Both of these people believed that they
17 were going to be killed that night. The defendant
18 doesn't get that, and he never will, which is why he 19 is a danger to society.

20 Your Honor, both of the victims
21 indicated that they would be here today. So much
22 like defense counsel, who's waiting for the 23 defendant's daughter to appear, I was waiting all
24 morning for the victims to appear.

25 But they're not here, and we can proceed

1 without them. If they show up, I'd ask that Your
2 Honor hear from them, but if they do not, I'm sure
3 Your Honor understands what they would say.

4 Your Honor, the defendant was, through
5 counsel, afforded the opportunity to listen to his 6 prison recordings again. Had the trial gone another
7 way, the government might have asked Your Honor to 8 use some of those recordings in its -- in its case in 9 chief or in its rebuttal if the defendant testified.

10 The doctor didn't listen to any of the 11 prison recordings that I offered to the defense prior 12 to trial, particularly, not even the five that I
13 highlighted as things that I might use.

14 And in those prison recordings -- and I
15 have them, Your Honor, the transcripts, if you
16 wished. But the defendant talks to his girlfriend
17 and his daughter about getting an alibi witness list
18 together, and that was when he was first arrested in 19 Philadelphia for these robberies.

20 He talks about how the -- the victim of 21 the Subway robbery was lying about his license plate
22 and following him down the street.

23 And he talks about how the police cut up
24 the videotape and how his attorney and the city
25 needed to suppress the videotape, because the police

1 had cut it all up to make him look like he was
2 guilty.

3 Those are not indicators of a person
4 that has acknowledged what they've done and is 5 remorseful for what they've done.

6 So my point in my sentencing memorandum
7 wasn't that that particular test regarding dangerous
8 was the appropriate one. My point was that isn't the 9 big picture of this defendant.

10 Your Honor knows who this defendant is 11 because after all of your years on the bench, Your 12 Honor, you know that this is a guy who, when he's out
13 of jail, commits crimes. That's what he does.

14 It's not because he's depressed, and 15 it's not because of horrific childhood trauma, and 16 we're not alleging that he did not suffer. It is 17 because this is what he does, and he has no regard
18 for the lives of the people that he victimized.

19 Now, the defense argument that he was 20 institutionalized as a young person and hasn't been 21 afforded an opportunity to get help flies in the face
22 of the fact that when he was 35, he was convicted of 23 a violent carjacking. He wasn't a teenager, Your 24 Honor. He was a 35-year-old man.

25 And for that carjacking, when he put a

ALLOCUTION OF DEFENDANT

Page 20

1 box cutter to the victim, who was trying to get into
2 her car, and stole her car, he got five years
3 imprisonment, all of which was suspended, except 4 for -- all but three years were suspended, Your 5 Honor, and then he got five years probation.

6 He didn't take advantage of that. He
7 committed a violation while on probation, and then he 8 didn't show up for the supervised release violation.

9 So we can talk all day long about how 10 the defendant has been diagnosed with depression and 11 PTSD. The facts speak for themselves. The 12 guidelines, the low end being 360 months, they are an 13 accurate reflection of this man.

14 Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Robinson,
16 before I impose sentence, is there anything you'd 17 like to say to me?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 MS. MacEOIN: Do you want us to 20 approach?

21 THE COURT: Come on up.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, Your
23 Honor.

24 The first thing I would like to say is 25 that it's funny how the government asserts that I

Page 21

1 didn't have any remorse for the victims because I
2 don't see any video of me in there talking to the 3 doctor. There's no video. There's no recordings.
4 It's only what the doctor wrote down, and I did
5 express this to the doctor.

6 I've been expressing this to the person
7 I talked to, which is in the institution, you know,
8 the doctors there that I talked to, and I express
9 this to the doctor. And I would have expressed it
10 today to the victims.

11 First, I want to explain to Your Honor
12 I'm not trying to get out of no time. You've got one
13 hand trying -- you've got one hand trying to give me
14 the most. You've got one hand trying to give me the 15 less. I'm not trying to get out --

16 THE COURT: On one hand is -- the most
17 is life.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Right. I'm not trying 19 to get out of no time. I'm not trying to get the 20 less out of you or anything.

21 What I'm trying to explain to you is
22 that I do have a problem that I've just recently
23 recognized that I have, within, I'd say, 12 months.
24 Okay?

25 It's hard for me to express it. I'm not

Page 22

1 going to just come out and say, oh, I've got a
2 problem, you know.

3 I got -- I read a book called, I Don't
4 Want to Talk About It, and they talk about male
5 depression and how -- how, you know -- how we hide
6 it. And I've realized that it's more than just 7 depression that I suffer from.

8 I've been misdiagnosed my whole life.
9 That's the one thing the government is not telling
10 you. I've been misdiagnosed -- they was giving me
11 Thorazine at the age of 10, at the age of 10. And 12 the reason why I don't like medicine now is because 13 of acts of molestation when I was put away and while 14 I was under this medication for years.

15 So it -- it pains me when someone tells
16 you that I just do things and want to hurt people. I
17 don't want to hurt nobody. I never wanted to hurt
18 nobody. I don't want to hurt the victims.

19 I act off impulse. They didn't tell you
20 that I came home from Maryland when I was locked
21 up -- I told the judge -- I said, yo, I need help. I
22 said, I do drugs. I've never done drugs a day in my
23 life nor alcohol, but I tell her this because I know
24 I need help.

25 She puts me in a program for -- for

Page 23

1 addicts. I get there, but it's, like, I can't relate
2 to it because I've never done drugs.

3 So I leave the program, and I go to my
4 P.O., and I say, listen, give me 90 days, and I'll 5 get my life together. In 30 days, I had a job, first 6 job in my whole life. I was a route manager for 7 TruGreen.

8 I financed my first car. Mother helped
9 me. Got a -- rented out a townhouse. I was doing
10 excellent. No crimes. I wasn't doing anything
11 wrong. Okay?

12 Never met my daughter a day in her life.
13 I made some bad choices outside of -- with women. I
14 made some bad choices. Okay? And when I made the 15 bad choice, it just sent me rumbling down.

16 I meet my daughter after 21 years. And 17 I come up here, because I don't live in Philly, so I
18 come up here to visit. And they're struggling, you
19 know, and I'm not working. I'm not doing anything at 20 this time.

21 And one of the reasons why I'm not doing
22 this is because I was implemented in some type of 23 bank scam with some checks, and they brung me in for 24 a probation violation, which I did show up for, and 25 they released me because I was on bond.

Page 24

1 I didn't show up for the probation the
2 government is talking about because I was
3 incarcerated.

4 Long story short, I acted on impulse.
5 I've done a lot of things in my life, a lot. I
6 didn't regret none of them when I was young because I
7 had no responsibilities. I didn't care, you know. I
8 didn't feel like nobody cared about me, any of that.

9 And I feel like that today, too. I feel
10 like -- that everybody is just looking at the time.
11 That's not the issue. The time is -- I need help, 12 sincere help, not help to say, oh, put him in the 13 prison, and let them take care of it.

14 No. If you're concerned about society,
15 then you would say, okay, no, I'm going to make sure
16 he get some type of help, not a recommendation, not,
17 hey, give the guy some help.

18 You know, I'm 41. So I'm asking you
19 today, whatever you sentence me to, at least let it
20 come with some help, because, if -- if anything, I
21 can help my grandson. Whether I'm doing 20 years, 30
22 years, life, I still have something to look forward
23 to, to give the help so he won't follow in my 24 footsteps.

25 Thank you.

STATEMENT OF INTENDED SENTENCE

Page 25

1 THE COURT: All right. I'm prepared to
2 impose your sentence, Mr. Robinson. I'm going to 3 state the sentence I intend to impose, and then I'll 4 ask counsel whether there are any objections with 5 respect to the accuracy or the regularity of the 6 sentence. If there are objections, we'll deal with 7 them. If there are no objections, we'll impose the 8 sentence.

9 So right now, I'm not imposing the 10 sentence. I'm simply stating the sentence I intend 11 to impose.

12 I'm going to ask you to stand.

13 In reaching this sentence, I have
14 considered all the factors enumerated in Title 18,
15 Section 3553(a) of the United States Code.

16 I have also consulted the sentencing
17 guidelines and the specific sentencing range that
18 those guidelines recommend so that your sentence
19 might not represent an unwarranted departure from 20 those imposed for similar crimes committed by similar 21 defendants.

22 Accordingly, I examined the nature and 23 circumstances of your offense and of your history and 24 characteristics as well as the psychological reports
25 that have been submitted to me.

Page 26

1 The sentence I'm about to impose will
2 reflect the seriousness of your offense. It will
3 provide adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and
4 protect the public, and it will, I hope, provide you
5 with any correctional treatment you might need.

6 My sentence also considers the relevant
7 policy statements issued by the Sentencing
8 Commission.

9 Finally, the sentence I will now impose
10 will reflect the need to provide restitution to any 11 of the victims of your offense.

12 In sum, I consider your sentence to be
13 sufficient but not greater than necessary to comply
14 with the United States Code, Title 18, Section
15 3553(a) and the United States Supreme Court decisions
16 in Apprendi versus New Jersey and United States
17 versus Booker.

18 In this case, a sentence within the 19 range established by the guidelines fulfills the 20 purposes of sentencing that I have set forth in 21 accordance with both Section 3553(a) and with the 22 Booker line of Supreme Court decisions.

23 Therefore, pursuant to the Sentencing
24 Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the court
25 that the defendant, Anthony Robinson, is hereby

Page 27

1 committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to 2 be imprisoned for a term of 240 months on each of
3 Counts 1 and 3, to run concurrent, and a term of 120
4 months on Count 2, to run consecutive to the terms
5 imposed on Counts 1 and 3, for a total term of 360
6 months. And that will include intensive psychiatric 7 treatment while incarcerated.

8 Upon release from imprisonment, the 9 defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a 10 term of three years on Counts 1 and 3 and a term of 11 five years on Count 2, all such counts [sic] to run
12 currently.

13 Within 72 hours of release from the 14 custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall 15 report in person to the probation office in the 16 district to which the defendant is released.

17 While on the supervised release, the 18 defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or 19 local crime; shall be prohibited from possessing a
20 firearm or other dangerous device; shall not possess
21 an illegal controlled substance; and shall comply
22 with the other standard conditions that have been 23 adopted by this court.

24 The defendant must submit to one drug
25 test within 15 days of commencement of supervised

1 release and at least two tests thereafter as
2 determined by the probation officer.

3 In addition, the defendant shall comply
4 with the following special conditions:

5 The defendant shall participate in a
6 mental health program for evaluation and treatment
7 and abide by the rules of any such program until 8 satisfactorily discharged.

9 The defendant shall cooperate in the 10 collection of DNA as directed by the probation
11 officer.

12 It is further ordered that the defendant
13 shall make restitution in the amount of $1,286. The 14 court will waive the interest requirement in this 15 case.

16 Payments should be made payable to The 17 Clerk, U.S. District Court, for proportionate 18 distribution to the following victims in the 19 following amounts: Subway, attention Jennifer
20 Sayo [ph], 545 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA
21 19123, $536; Ana's Linens, Attention: Loss
22 Prevention, Daniel Rainey, R-a-i-n-e-y, 3550 Highland 23 Avenue, Costa Mesa, California 92626, $750.

24 Restitution is due immediately. It is 25 recommended that the defendant participate in the

Page 29

1 Bureau of Prisons Financial Responsibility Program
2 and provide a minimum payment of $25 per quarter
3 toward restitution.

4 In the event the entire restitution is
5 not paid prior to commencement of supervision, the 6 defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly
7 installments of not less than $50 to commence 30 days
8 after release from confinement.

9 The defendant shall notify the United
10 States Attorney for this district within 30 days of 11 any change of mailing address or residence that 12 occurs while any portion of the restitution remains
13 unpaid.

14 The court finds that the defendant does
15 not have the ability to pay a fine. The court will 16 waive the fine in this case.

17 It is further ordered that the defendant
18 shall pay to the United States a total special
19 assessment of $300, which shall be due immediately.

20 Government, do you know any reason why
21 the sentence I've just stated should not be imposed?

22 MS. LINEHAN: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Defense?

24 MS. MacEOIN: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Probation, any problems?

SENTENCE OF THE COURT / NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

1 MS. MUSSELMAN: None, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: There being no objections or
3 further submissions, I order that the sentence be 4 imposed as I've just stated it to be.

5 Mr. Robinson, I've now formally imposed
6 the sentence, and, therefore, you have now been 7 sentenced, and this criminal process from our 8 standpoint is over. But from your standpoint, it is 9 not. As you know you have many obligations as a
10 result of this sentence.

11 I advise you, Mr. Robinson, you have the 12 right to appeal, including the right to appeal the 13 sentence I just imposed on you.

14 I also advise you that if you are able 15 to pay the costs of an appeal, that you may apply for 16 leave to appeal in forma pauperis, and if that leave
17 is granted for you to appeal in forma pauperis, then
18 there won't be any costs that would be imposed upon
19 you to take such an appeal.

20 If you so request, the clerk of the 21 court shall prepare and file right away a Notice of 22 Appeal on your behalf. You have 14 days to file an 23 appeal.

24 Now, do you understand what your rights
25 are that I've just given you with respect to your

COLLOQUY

1 ability to appeal?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: I order that the sentence
4 I've just imposed be executed immediately, and you
5 are to begin serving the sentence that I imposed on 6 you.

7 Anything further, defense?

8 MS. MacEOIN: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Government?

10 MS. LINEHAN: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Good luck to 12 you. Thank you. We're adjourned.

13 Is there any request about where he
14 should serve this sentence?

15 MS. MacEOIN: Your Honor, we would just 16 request that it be -- if Your Honor could recommend 17 that it be as close to Philadelphia as possible.

18 THE COURT: Close to Philadelphia? I'll
19 make that recommendation.

20 MS. MacEOIN: Thank you very much.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MS. MacEOIN: Oh, Your Honor, and
23 also -- I'm sorry -- just also to make sure that 24 whatever facility has the proper treatment that Your 25 Honor has recommended he receive. Thank you.

COLLOQUY

1 THE COURT: Well, they see what's in my
2 order.

3 MS. MacEOIN: They do. Thank you.
